

Construction Permitting Solutions

Release of Liability

I, _____ understand CPS LLC is a private third-party permit facilitator only and is not an agent, employee, or affiliate of any city, county, state or federal governmental agency. I understand that I am responsible for paying all cost to all governmental agencies that are required to facilitate and process permits. I also understand that fees charged by CPS are separate and in addition to fees for any other agencies or firms. I understand that the fees paid to CPS are non-refundable, whether your permit is issued or not and that 50% of the fees must be paid before Construction Permitting Solutions, submits your permit and the remainder is due upon 14-day billing cycle. You do obtain the right to pay all the fees before your submittal. I understand that CPS does not guarantee the issuance of any permit applied for on my behalf and is not liable for the denial or approval of your permit. I understand that CPS is not responsible for providing legal advice or interpretation of codes and statues. I understand that I am responsible for providing CPS with all necessary information required for the services rendered and that CPS is not responsible for any omitted or incorrect information given by you. I release CPS from all liability related to the design and construction of any development or property for which I procure its services, including any and all related material.
